ROSEDALE™

ELECTRIC INSERT

NEFB26H-MF | NEFB29H-MF

SEAMLESS INSTALLATION. STRIKING REALISM.

The Rosedale™ Electric is designed to bring new life to your space, whether you're upgrading an existing fireplace or building something new. It makes retrofit installations simple, sliding easily into most wood, masonry, or gas firebox openings for a clean, finished look. Enjoy a low-maintenance experience that helps improve indoor air quality without the mess or drafts of traditional fireplaces. With multi-layer flame technology, a glowing log set and a modulating ember bed, every detail is designed to capture the look and feel of a real fire.
